Excerpt: . . . 11 The first interpretive program for visitors who come to an American Battle Monuments Commission cemetery is at Normandy. Some 30 million was spent on the Normandy Interpretive Program. We thank the House and the Senate for funding that program. Now Normandy has tremendous visitation. Normandy, in fact is our most visited cemetery. I was there with the President on June 6th, and he looked at me and said great job. And I said thank you, Mr. President, but I had been Secretary of the American Battle Monuments Commission for just 48 hours. So the Interpretive Program is underway. We want to have an interpretive center at Cambridge outside of London ready for the 2012 Olympics. There are other interpretive programs we want to put together around the world - in our biggest cemetery in Manila, for example. So the Interpretive Program is well underway, as are the brochures which we have accelerated in terms of production that will go to these cemeteries in multiple languages. I...
