A brush with fame blossomed into something far more spiritual, much longer lasting and infinitely more beautiful. . . Donna-Marie Cooper OBoyle will never forget the first time she laid eyes on Mother Teresa of Calcutta. Hunched, frail, not much taller than Donnas six-year-old daughter, the aging servant of the poorest of the poor cut an unassuming figure awaiting the start of Mass with Her Missionary of Charity sisters. They would speak briefly after the liturgy Mother Teresa wanted to meet the mother of such reverent and grace-filled children and then spend the next ten years intermittently sharing hopes, dreams, and prayers through the mail and in face-to-face conversations. With Mother Teresa and Me, Donna-Marie invites you to step inside her deeply personal experiences with one of the greatest souls of modern times. Take her up on the offer and dont be surprised if you, too, find your heart blessed and your soul inspired by the diminutive nun who left an enormous impression on Donna-Marie and on the whole world. . From the National Catholic Register: Donna-Marie Cooper OBoyle was raising a family over 20 years ago when she unexpectedly met Mother Teresa of Calcutta. Over the next 10 years, not only did the correspondence she began with the saintly nun grow into friendship, but Cooper OBoyles life was changed by her exposure to the foundress of the Missionaries of Charity. She became a writer, speaker, blogger and a lay Missionary of Charity. Although to claim friendship with Mother Teresa could be seen as boasting, Cooper OBoyle manages to relate her story in a spirit of humility, keeping the focus on Mother Teresas words and wisdom. In fact, she writes, she initially kept her correspondence...
