Not illustrated. 1896 Excerpt: . but a change has taken place in its fortunes and it now seems to be gaining ground. The position of the buildings and their surroundings are really charming, and the education given the girls is more practical and better suited to their future in life than in some other institutions of similar character. There is a large school, under the auspices of the Roman Catholic Mission, for children of both sexes. A considerable number of Portuguese attend this establishment. The standard of teaching is not high. The Roman Catholic schools under the Brothers of Mary are exceptionally good institutions but those not under that body are of inferior quality. Much attention is paid to the Chinese and there are special schools for them conducted by two religious bodies. DISTRICT OF HAMAKUA. School Agent, William Horner, Esq. Appointed April 1, 1893.
