The islands on the eastern side are Reushinski and a half dozen small islands westward of it, Linski Island, on which is Fort Novo Dvina, and Brevennik Island which continues the same coast line and is only separated from Linski by a narrow channel. The whole of the western side of this reach is occupied by the large Nikolski Island and a number of small ones lying off its northeastern side. The fourth reach takes a 132 direction for over 2 miles, and has on its northeastern side the southern part of Brevennik, on which are commercial wharves, factories, and sawmills. On the southwestern side of the passage is Ostrovskoi Island with several villages on it in one of which the pilots reside. Shoals extend 1 mile eastward of that island, and there are several islands to the eastward and northeastward of it. The fifth reach turns from southeast to south and so continues for about 1f miles between Solombalski Island and the shoals and small islands off Ostrovskoi, when one part turns southwestward toward Kego Island for 1 mile and then runs southeastward along the side of that island nearly 2 miles to the western end of Arkhangel, and iinothor branch curves southeastward past Solombalskie village on the left, and Monsev Island on the right. Berezovi Bar is at the entrance of the Berezovi Channel; it is divided by a 6-foot shoal into two passages; that now used...
