We have, therefore, been obliged to confine ourselves to some of the more essential laws, which may serve as a preparation to the study of the modern compilation. The first source of the law appears in the compilation of laws of the Indies, which established numerous provisions referring to the various officials administering or assisting in the administration of justice; but as practical needs went on demonstrating the deficiency of this compilation, new partial provisions were published from time to time, some by the department of grace and justice, until 1851, when the colonial department (Ministerio de Ultramar)...
