Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Annals of Charlestown: In the County of Sullivan, New Hampshire Charlestown is situate in a delightful and fertile valley, bounded on the east by a range of high hills, and on the west by Connecticut river. Although they have not, like the mountains and rivers of other regions, been made the theme of the poet s song, it requires but little aid from imagination to believe them equally entitled to the same honor. But the portion of the town peculiarly adapted to awaken the attention of the traveller, is the village. As he views it in its secluded loveliness, guarded by the barriers of mountain and river, he might pardonably fancy it secure from the vices, which contaminate the world without, and be ready to trace in its beauty, and its seeming peacefulness and innocence, a resemblance to ancient Eden. But let him rest, when imagination shall have carried him thus far, lest, if his investigation proceed he find that there are not impassable barriers against the evils and vices, which are the universal portion...
