Second Story Press, Canada, 2007. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 188 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Hana s Suitcase, which has been translated into more than thirty-five languages and is currently being developed into two feature-length films, tells the incredible true story of a Japanese Holocaust educator who traveled the globe to track down information about the owner of a suitcase found at Auschwitz. Her search led her to the owner s long-lost brother and a history of both love and tragedy. Since its publication in 2002, the story of Hana Brady, a little girl who wanted to become a teacher, has captured the hearts and minds of schoolchildren and adults around the globe. Now, with a stage play touring North America, Hana s story becomes even more alive. Hana s Suitcase on Stage is a unique volume that combines the story and images of the original book with the complete script of award-winning writer Emil Sher s theatrical adaptation. It s a must-read-and a must-see-for teachers and schoolchildren from coast to coast. Karen Levine has won several awards for her radio work, including two Peabody awards. Levine originally produced Hana s Suitcase as a radio documentary and later made it into a book. She lives in Toronto, Ontario. Emil Sher is a multitalented, award-winning writer whose works include stage plays, radio dramas, short fiction and essays. Sher lives with his wife and two children in Toronto, Ontario, and Morin Heights, Quebec. Hana s Suitcase on Stage opened to very positive reviews and lots of press in St. Louis in January 2007.
