In winter time, when all is covered with snow, and the ground so hard frozen as that no spade nor pikeaxe can enter, their manner is not to burie their dead, but to keepe the bodies (so many as die all the winter time) in an house in the suburbs or outparts of the towne, which they call Bohsedom, that is, Gods house, where the dead bodies are pyled up together, like billets on a woodstack, as hard with frost as a very stone, till the springtide come and resolveth the frost: what time every man taketh his dead friend and committeth him to the ground. They have, besides,...
